Notes

---

Christopher WORRILOW

Person Notes: Christopher Worrilow as born 1574 at Haughton, Staffordshire, England and died 4 April 1605 Haughton, Staffordshire, England. Not much is know about his wife Margery and it is believed that she was born about 1578 at Haughton, Staffordshire, England and died sometime between 1614 and 1615. Kay Hutchinson, during a visit to England, says that Margery's date of death was illegible and it is between 1614 and 1615. However, she also saw another Margery Warrilow, widow, buried at Haughton Feb 11, 1645. Kay speculates that this could be a re-copy of the illegible one with the correct date. If so, she may have outlived her husband by 40 years.

Based on the birth dates of the children, I believe they married before 1600. Additionally, I believe it likely that both Christopher and Margery were buried near their home site, Brasenhill (spelled Brazenhill in England). Brazenhill is a rural community north of the village of Haughton and Brazenhill Lane is a rural road which runs northwest and connects with Station Road. There are other properties and businesses that also bear the name Brazenhill in the area.

Marriage Notes: This information is from Charles C Phillips of Tucson. I have not idea where his information comes from so I have no idea of its accuracy. However, based on the dates of birth of their children, it is probably more accuray that the LDS file.

The LDS file dates their marriage Abt 1603 but I believe this to be wrong based on the fact that two of their children were born before this date.

Death Notes: On Kay Hutchinson's visit to England she writes of the Burials at Haughton: Christopher Warrilow, April 4, 1605; and Margery Warrilow, widow (date illegible, between 1614-15), parents of John and grandparents of Thomas Henry of Edgmtont.

Margery

Death Notes: LDS shows that Margery died on the same day as her husband, Christopher. This is obviously wrong because it also shows that she was buried in 1614.

Kay Hutchinson, during a visit to England, says that Margery's date of death was illegible and it is between 1614 and 1615. However, she also saw another Margery Warrilow, widow, buried at Haughton Feb 11, 1645. Kay speculates that this could be a re-copy of the illegible one with the correct date. If so, she may have outlived her husband by 40 years.

Jane WORRILOW

Marriage Notes: On Kay Hutchinson's visit to England she writes of the Marriages: Jane Warrelowe married John Leigh at Haughton 11/27/1664.

---

Marie WORRILOW

Marriage Notes: On Kay Hutchinson's visit to England she writes of the Marriages: Marie Warrilow married Ralph Lownes at Haughton 6/12/1626.

Death Notes: Both LDS and Kay Hutchinson list her death as 12 Jun 1626 which is also the day she was married. I would think that it unlikely that she died on this date.

John WORRILOW

Marriage Notes: LDS list her name as Alice Worrilow or Alice ??
